The student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. To cancel the enrollment agreement, students must submit a written notice of cancellation to the University office.

Students can drop courses from their schedule up to two weeks after the start of the semester without penalty. Refunds will be issued for the full difference in the change in tuition. After the first two weeks of the start of the semester, refunds will be prorated. Classes dropped after the 60% point of the semester are not eligible for refunds and the student will receive a grade of W (withdrawal) on their transcript. To drop a course, students meet with the Registrar to discuss and make changes to their schedule.

Withdrawing from the university may be either voluntary or involuntary. Students who seek voluntary withdrawal must meet with the Registrar and submit a written notice indicating voluntary withdrawal. Students who have registered for the active term may be eligible for a refund. Prior to the start of the term, any tuition paid will be fully refunded. After the first two weeks of the start of the term and up to the 60% point of the term, refunds will be prorated based on the day of the term. After the 60% point, no refunds will be issued and the student will automatically receive a grade of W (withdrawal) on their transcript for their courses. Involuntary withdrawals occur primarily for failing to register for courses for the active semester or for violations of the Student Code of Conduct. Other reasons may apply.

Students who are eligible for a refund will have their refunds processed and issued within five business days.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.
